

Table with multiple columns listing names, addresses, and phone numbers. Includes sections for Lüneburg and Lütjenburg. The table is organized into columns, with names and addresses in the first column and phone numbers in the second column. Some entries include additional details like professions or services.