

The site plan of the Schlosspark in Berlin shows a complex arrangement of buildings and green spaces. The Schloss (castle) is located at the top left, with the Schlossmuseum and Schlossparkmuseum nearby. The Schlosspark itself is a large, irregularly shaped area with winding paths and gardens. Key features include the 'Sportplatz' (sports field), 'Wirtschaftsgebäude' (service building), 'Landhaus', 'Restaurant', 'Tennisplatz', 'Spielwiese' (play field), and 'Kleinkinderspielfeld' (children's play field). The plan is oriented with North at the top.
